Request for Comments - ZA24.2023 - Haswell, 127 Enoch St 4205 020.001.00400

The building department has received the above application and has the following comments:

- Any new construction could require a building permit please contact the office and speak to the department.
- The accessory building will need to comply with the code and meet the spatial separation requirements which may affect the type of construction materials or unprotected openings.
