Official Plan Amendment Application		$1,000.00
Part Lot Control		$1,000.00
Where/when required in the sole opinion of the Municipality		$1,000.00

Where, in the sole opinion of the Municipality the Deposit is not required, the Municipality will not collect the Deposit. The Municipality may withdraw funds from the Deposit for costs related to technical reviews, professional reviews, legal fees or other professional costs incurred during the review/approval of an application. As a Deposit, additional funds may be required if Deposit funds are depleted. Surplus/unused Deposit funds will be returned by the Municipality.

3. Major means a proposal that contains more than 10 units or a proposal that contains a non-residential gross floor area exceeding 1,000 square metres or, a proposal that contains a mixture of units and non-residential uses exceeding 1,000 square metres of gross floor area.
4. Minor means a proposal that contains less than or equal to 10 units or, a proposal that contains a non-residential gross floor area less than or equal to 1,000 square metres or, a proposal that contains a mixture of units and non-residential uses less than or equal to 1,000 square metres of gross floor area.
5. Where a Consent/Lot Addition/Enlargement application requires an easement(s), only the Consent/Lot Addition/Enlargement fee is charged.
6. Planning Inquiry: A staff review of a proposal and direction in terms of the types of applications required, information you need to complete or prepare to submit with the application, and an indication, if known, of key planning considerations that may affect the likelihood of success. Inquiries are a good starting point for projects like a severance, minor variance or zoning amendment.
7. Pre-Submission Consultation: Pre-Submission Consultation is similar to a Planning Inquiry but is typically used for larger projects such as multiple lot creation by consent, subdivision, or condominium, telecommunication towers, renewable energy projects. Pre-submission consultation typically involves a meeting with staff and may include external agencies and stakeholders. The outcome of pre-submission consultation is a summary of the meeting and direction in terms of the types of applications required, information you need to complete or prepare to submit with the application, next steps including terms of reference for studies that may be required and an indication, if known, of key planning considerations that may affect the likelihood of success of the application.
8. Court, Ontario Land Tribunal, Legal Hearings – Staff Attendance: A ‘Legal Deposit’ for planning or other municipal staff to attend an OLT, court or any other legal tribunal hearing, prehearing, mediation or other required attendance in support of an appeal or legal challenge of a planning application approved by the Municipality. Where, in the sole opinion of the Municipality, the Legal Deposit is not required the Municipality will not collect the Legal Deposit. The Municipality will withdraw funds from the Legal Deposit for costs related to legal fees or other professional costs incurred during attendance at the OLT, court or any other legal tribunal. As a Legal Deposit, additional funds may be required if Legal Deposit funds are depleted. Surplus/unused Legal Deposit funds will be returned by the Municipality.
